

STUDENT CONFERENCE ISSUE

Welcome,
Delegates!

Holly THE Leaf

STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE

Welcome,
Speakers!

VOL. X

SALISBURY, MD., APRIL 1937

NO. 4

Seniors, Here Is Information Regarding How To Register

Seniors Having Complimentary
Tickets May Attend College
Night Free

LOW CONFERENCE COST

As soon as you have walked up the stone steps at S.T.C., senior, and have passed under the majestic columns there, stop just as you are about to enter the doors. Raise your head and receive our first greeting to you, symbolized in a carved pineapple which decorates the framework of our portals. "Welcome"—the greeting of the pineapple — our greeting to you always.

And then you will open the doors and pass on into our lobby. You will, no doubt, pause to view your surroundings. To your left you will see the post office boxes where we of S.T.C. receive our mail from home, etc., everyday. Then to your right you will notice a glass-covered bulletin board which is as vitally connected with the announcement of activities here as Times Square is to New York. At the end of the bulletin board is the entrance to our administrative office. Now you are ready for that very exciting and interesting experience of "signing on the dotted line" or just registering. There is no charge for registration.

Inside the office you will be welcomed by the cheery smile of our registrar, Miss Helen Bradley. Assisting her at the enrollment desk will be students of the college. Beyond the desk you may see the routine office work being expertly and efficiently carried on by the secretary of our college, Mrs. Nelson Fritz. She's tall and dark and graciously at your service.

So having "signed up," you are handed a very big mysterious looking envelope. If, like everyone else, your curiosity gets the better of you, you will immediately break the seal and drag out the contents. There will be such things as a delegate tag, a program for the entire week-end's activities, and tickets for each particular activity in which you desire to participate. A small fee for the luncheon, dinner, breakfast, and for lodging will be paid at this time:

April 9 Dinner 50c
(Continued on Page Three)

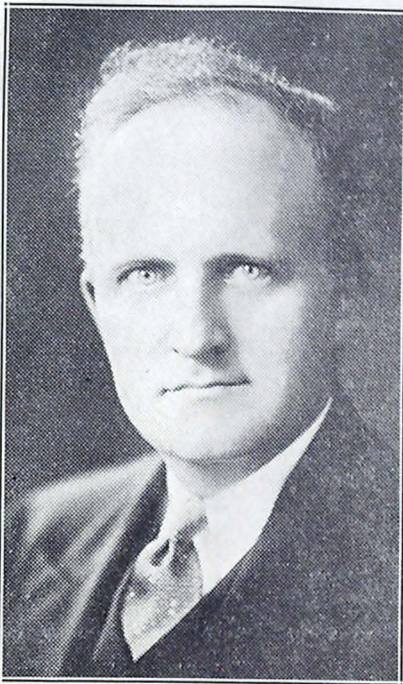

Here's More Information

After Friday night, April 9, you will know better the members of the Dance Committee: Carolyn Riley, David Perry, and Mr. J. Lloyd Straughn.

During the Conference the members of the Information Committee will serve you. They're: Miriam Beachley, Harry McCann, and Mr. T. J. Caruthers.

Of course you have read the articles that have been appearing in your local papers. These stories have been prepared by the Misses Vivian Bounds and Garland Jones under the direction of Miss Anne Matthews and Mrs. Nelson Fritz.

VISITING CONFERENCE SPEAKERS

Dr. T. B. Manny
Professor of Sociology, University of Maryland, one of the principal speakers.

Mrs. H. Ross Coppage
President, Maryland Congress of Parents and Teachers which organization is co-sponsor to the Conference.

Dr. Edwin W. Broome
Superintendent of Schools, Montgomery County, who will open the Conference.

Information, Please—

"Where shall I go?"
"What shall I do?"
"What room is that?"
"May I go in here?"

Such questions will be eliminated by the plans formulated by the Hospitality Committee with Dr. Florence Simonds, Instructor in Botany and Zoology, as Chairman. The members of the committee are: George Davis, President Mens' Day Association, Rachel Mitchell, President Women's Day Association, Lucille Testerman, President Home Association. Students have been designated to receive visitors at the door and to make them feel as comfortable as at home.

A Sight-Seeing Committee will point out places of interest within the college, on the campus, and in the city. Not only does this committee aim to help individuals familiarize themselves with the delightful surroundings which we hope many will share with us next year, but to add to the interest and enjoyment of those who may not again visit our institution.

Anyone who wishes information of any kind has only to mention the fact to a member of the Hospitality or Sight-Seeing Committee. Cooperation and comradeship so far as the two committees are concerned, shall be the watchwords of the day.

So, ye High Students and others—hasten hither! We assure you that you will enjoy the good fellowship.

FORUM LEADER

Reverend Thomas A. Williams
Pastor of the Wicomico Presbyterian Church, Salisbury, who will lead one of the forum discussions.

Dear High School Seniors,

Would you like to get first hand information of life at S.T.C.? Maybe we of the Publications Staff can help you.

First, of course, there's Lillian Hough, our Student Council president. Lillian's tall . . . blonde . . . naive . . . has a southern accent . . . had the highest scholastic rating for her class last year. A swell athlete, too—a star player on our women's varsity basketball squad. You'll be seeing lots of her at the Conference.

Lil Hutchison with her enthusiasm and interest heads the Christian Association. She's tall and stately, gracious, and ever ready to lend a helping hand. A "high spot" on the sophomore women's basketball team.

Then there's I.T., as we all say. Really his name is Ira T. Todd, and he's from Crisfield, Maryland. Tall, dark, a perfect Granger. You'll hit it O.K. with I.T.

Miss Vivian Bounds of Salisbury heads one society, the Bagleams. Vivian's a junior, about 5 feet, 3 inches . . . grey eyes . . . (resembles Norma Shearer, some say). She's your pal—ask her who "Mickey" is and "Kibby," too, if you like.

The Carnean Society president is another junior and likewise another Salisburian. She's Charlotte Lowe . . . tall, slim, vivacious—a dream that walks—almost: you see, there's mischief in her eyes of brown. Ask her who "Pep" is.

The Sophanes Players, the dramatic club of S.T.C. is presided over by Mr. Arthur Somervell of Salisbury. Blond hair, brown eyes, a Greek physique—that's Arthur. He'll show you around.

And Wade Caruthers. He's a real pal. President of the Athletic Association. Tall, blue eyes, dark hair. A friend indeed.

Naive . . . petite . . . blonde . . . a sparkling soprano and also one of the favorites on S.T.C.'s basketball team . . . that's Jeanne Holloway, president of the Glee club. She's got lots planned for you. See her "note" of greeting on page 3.

Virginian . . . blase—that's our tenor president of the Men's Chorus. Be on the watch for him and his fellow warblers—You'll like Tom White.

Miss Carolyn Riley is the stately senior's president. Small, dark, sophisticated . . . clever!

And J. Fletcher of the jolly juniors. He's from Waldorf, Maryland. So's his twin brother, Frank, who's Art Editor of The Holly Leaf. For hospitality and service—Fletcher's the name.

A swell guy if ever there was one—David Perry who hails from Preston, Maryland. Some athlete, too; he's Athletic Editor of The Holly Leaf.

And Harry McCann, leader of "the 100 frosh." Boy! Oh! Boy! He's our Robert Taylor. See if you don't think the same.

Boarding students are headed by Miss Lucille Testerman of Princess Anne, Maryland. Lucille's a junior, one active in all sports. Her gay air will delight you.

Miss Rachel Mitchell, a Titian blond, President of the Day Students Association, will make you feel at home. Her interests are chiefly athletic and dramatic. Ask her about her part in "She Stoops To Conquer."

George, better known as "Inky" Davis leads the Men's Day Association. You can't resist his jovial air.

So here they are—the presidents of the organizations—at your service. But they're not the only ones—not by a long shot! There's some more of us here, you bet! And we're at your service, too! "So are we all—"

Will you give us a chance to prove it?

Yours,

THE PUBLICATIONS STAFF

Council President Reviews Events Of The Conference

Extends Welcome To All
Maryland High School
Seniors

PROMINENT SPEAKERS

You have already been invited to the Student Conference but the Student Council takes this opportunity to extend to you a special invitation and to offer a hearty word of greeting. In planning this Conference, the committees have attempted to prepare a varied program and, no matter what your interests, we feel that you will find some events that will make your visit to our college most worthwhile and impressive.

The committees have made a great effort to secure worthwhile speakers — SPEAKERS — just a moment, I know by the time a great many of you have read this far, you will say, "I don't like lectures. I hear them every day in class. I want to hear something different." This is different. The speakers — There's that word again—only lead the discussions, and you give your viewpoint on such vital questions as "To what extent shall I obey rules and laws," "Do people tend to talk about being honest but to act dishonestly," "When is youth well educated?" Some of the leaders of these forums—doesn't that sound better than speakers? — are such personages as Mrs. H. Ross Coppage, President of the Maryland Congress of Parents and Teachers, Miss Elisabeth Amery, State Department of Education, Dr. T. B. Manny, University of Maryland, Mr. Edwin W. Broome, Superintendent of Schools in Montgomery County, Dean Small of the University of Maryland, and the Rev. Mr. Williams of Salisbury.

And don't get the wrong impression. Speakers and Forums aren't going to be the only attraction. The leading educators of today say that this is an age of self-expression. In order to give an opportunity for this part of our educational development, we have scheduled two dances: an afternoon tea dance, and an informal dance. The Glee Club and Men's Chorus are also planning a special type of self-expression for your entertainment. If you are of the dramatic type you will appreciate the clever little play sponsored by the Sophanes Players.

Mickey and Pep, the mascots of the Bagleams and the Carneans, are each going to give you a treat.

"Mind beautiful — body beautiful" that's the way the Greeks expressed it. If you want to see how the students of S.T.C. accomplish this, you just must see the gym exhibition.

Visit us, see our school and how we live.

Campus Leaders To Be Announced

Don't fail to be in the auditorium on Friday night, April 9, at 7:00 o'clock. Why?

Early in the evening the results of the Campus Leaders Contest will be made known. Then, too, those who will receive achievement keys will be announced.

THE HOLLY LEAF STAFF

Editor-in-chief Frances Parsons '38
Associate Editor Helen Smith '37
Literary Editor Vivian Bounds '38
Art Editor Francis Fletcher '38
Athletic Editor David Perry '39
Business Manager Robert Cannon '39
Copy Reader Lawrence Freeny '39
Proof Reader Carolyn Horsey '38
Reporter John J. Bunting, Jr. '40
Reporter Charles Elliott '40
Typist Beatrice Sherwell '39
Faculty Editorial Adviser Miss Anne H. Matthews
Faculty Business Adviser Mr. T. J. Caruthers
Published Monthly during the School Year by the State Teachers College, Salisbury, Md.

Mr. J. Lloyd Straughn
Chemistry and Mathematics

This tall, good-natured science teacher will help you have a good time at the dance.

Miss Margaret Black
Music

"Music has charms . . ." The Glee Club and Men's Chorus will give all the evidence needed of Miss Black's rhythmic leadership.

Miss Florence T. Simonds
Botany and Zoology

Miss Simonds, or "Doctor Teacher" as the freshmen say. You'll soon know this tall blonde with her gracious hospitable manner.

Miss Helen M. Bradley
College Registrar

She's the first one you'll see in the main office.

Just Introducing Some College Officials

OUR PRESIDENT

On behalf of the members of the faculty and student body of the State Teachers College, and the officers of the Maryland Congress of Parents and Teachers, I wish to invite you to attend the second annual conference to be held at the State Teachers College in Salisbury on Friday and Saturday, April 9 and 10.

The conference theme is Youth Problems. Different phases of this important topic will be presented by prominent speakers. Smaller groups then, through discussion, will apply to particular problems, the principles as presented by the respective leaders. In this way, ample opportunity will be given for the frank expression of individual opinion.

Truly, you cannot afford to miss this second annual Student Conference at your college. J. D. BLACKWELL

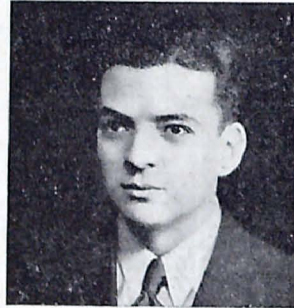

Mrs. Ida Belle Wilson Thomas
Social Sciences

Does she know her history and can she tell it! You'll get a sample of her "telling power" at the Friday night dinner.

Miss Helen L. Jamart
Director Women's Athletics

Right! Left! But, my friends, Miss Jamart's always right. If we're not all good sports, it isn't because an example isn't greater than precept is as far as our athletic teacher's concerned.

Mr. Benn Maggs
Director Men's Athletics

Orchestra leader and athletic director. A rare combination in this little big teacher. If you don't agree just tell me on Saturday, April 10.

Miss Ruth F. C. Powell
Social Director

Now, visitors, if you're not well fed, it's not "Miss Ruth's" fault. Frankly, I say to you that there isn't anything "Miss Ruth" wouldn't do to make you happy and comfortable.

Miss Henrietta S. Purnell
Art

"Art for art's sake." Artistic posters for the Conference and for all other occasions. Miss Purnell and her helpers are the kind that really help.

Mr. Thomas J. Caruthers
Director of Teacher Training

Our school philosopher—a real director. You needn't be afraid he won't tell you in his fine style the highlights of the Conference. You'll enjoy it, too.

Mrs. William Howard Bennett
Librarian, English

"All the world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players" . . . Under Mrs. Bennett's able direction the Sophanes Players are doing things. "Red Carnations" will prove it.

Miss Anne H. Matthews
English

You may see her anywhere looking after the publicity and greeting you courteously as she has helped us do in this paper.

Mrs. Nelson Fritz
Secretary

Courteous treatment and splendid assistance, that's what you'll receive when you meet Mrs. Fritz in the main office.

Organization Presidents
Extend Greetings

Dear High School Student,

Allow me to introduce myself—I am a little black and white member of the canine family, one you will see around S.T.C. when you come to the Conference in spite of my size. After all—the best things come in small packages—and we keep our eyes open for them.

When you come to the Conference, I'll try to show you a swell-elegant time. I have planned to lead the Bagleans in some of our songs and cheers on All College Night. I'm sure when you hear the rafters ringing with Bagleian praises, you'll want to join right in with us. Go ahead and do it! Don't be bashful. The more the merrier!

As you have probably guessed by this time, I am one of those peculiar personages often found in clubs—a mascot. And do I like the position! Only lack of space prevents my pursuing the subject further.

This is Mickey signing off till April 9 and 10.

GREETINGS FROM PEP

Didi you ever hear a white rooster crow—C-A-R-N-E-A-N? Well, you've a treat in store for you, because on Friday night I'm going to perform that feat for you with all my Carnean followers.

Imagine, a rooster and a dog being put in the spotlight. Makes me flap my wings with pride because I'm a Carnean.

Hope you crow in with us, "Pep"

A "NOTE" TO THE SENIORS

Greetings! Welcome to the Student Conference from the Glee Club and Men's Chorus. We're sure that if you are "natural," and just a wee bit "sharp" you won't find the Conference "flat." Don't expect to find a "rest" for we'll have plenty for you to do. We won't "bar" anything in order that you'll have a good "time" because we don't do anything by "halves."

Musically yours,
JEANNE and TOM

DRAMATIC CLUB
PRESIDENT SAYS—

It all happens when a boy meets a girl at a dance and red carnations mix things up—you'll enjoy this presentation "Red Carnations" by the Sophanes Players. Featured in it are: Arthur Richardson, Herman Perdue, and Miriam Beachley.

Richardson is the comedian of the college. Prominent in high school dramatics, he has continued this interest here. Be on the watch for him. Perdue whose work is quite commendable is a newcomer in the dramatic field. In addition to her dramatic ability, Miss Beachley is known especially for her make-up art.

The Dramatic Club hopes to see you in the auditorium on Friday night.

WELCOME, HI SENIORS!

We hope you enjoy yourselves while you are here. Look us up if you want to know anything, because we can show you some things those boarding students can't.

Sincerely,
Rachel Mitchell
George Davis

Tennis, Basketball, Baseball,
Track Meets, and Soccer

These are just a few of the attractions at S. T. C. that one can always mention in type. But there is one coming event that deserves special mention since it concerns all Maryland High School Seniors. That is an invitation to an all Maryland High School Track and Field Meet, which will be held at our college later on in the spring. We'll tell you more about it when we see you at the Conference.

Athletically yours,
Wade Caruthers,
President, Athletic Ass'n

PLANNING THE STUDENT CONFERENCE

STUDENT ORGANIZATION PRESIDENTS

Seated (left to right): Ira T. Todd, Master of Grange; Lucille Testerman, President Home Association; Lillian Hutchison, President Christian Association; Vivian Bounds, President Bagleans; Rachel Mitchell, President Women's Day Association; Lillian Hough, President Student Council; George Davis, President Men's Day Association; Arthur Somervell, President Sophanes Players.

Standing (left to right): Sam Carey, Vice-President, Seniors; Charlotte Lowe, President Carneans; Jeanne Holloway, President Glee Club; Wade Caruthers, President Athletic Association; Jerome Fletcher, President Juniors; Frances Parsons, Editor Student Publications; David Perry, President Sophomores.

SENIORS, HERE IS INFORMATION REGARDING
HOW TO REGISTER

(Continued from Page One)

Lodging 50c
April 10 Breakfast 25c
Lunch 25c
Total $1.50

Persons having complimentary tickets may attend All College Night free.

It is very important that you wear the identification tag which you will find in your envelope for, if we can see your name as soon as we see you, we can do a better job of introducing ourselves and also of making you acquainted with delegates from other schools.

Well—So long! Don't forget to receive the welcome of the pineapple. I'll be seeing you.

(Editor's Note: The above article was written by Miss Helen Smith. You'll like Helen. She accompanies the Glee Club. In '35-'36 she was acclaimed Miss S. T. C. in the Campus Leaders Contest. She is Associate Editor of the Publications Staff.)

Conference Chairman

Mr. E. Bruce Thompson
Social Sciences

Chairman Steering Committee

If conference plans go right, tell the chairman, Mr. Thompson. If they go wrong, do the same. He'll thank you graciously for the first and be glad of help if the last is the case.

GREETINGS!

From S. T. C. Class Presidents

Senior, Carolyn Riley
Junior, Jerome Fletcher
Sophomore, David Perry
Freshman, Harry McCann

Let's Review the Second
Annual Athletic Exhibition

The Campus Leaders have been announced, seniors, so now over to the gym for a couple of hours enjoyment that will be different from anything you've seen at the Conference yet. Do you have an idea what I'm driving at? Well, I'll tell you, this special entertainment of which I'm speaking is that colorful athletic exhibition put on each year here by students of S.T.C. under the direction of Miss Helen Jamart and Mr. Benn Maggs. (See page 2.)

O.K. All set? The crowd's already beginning to form. Better scoot across the gym now and get your seats on the bleachers. Say, have you met these fellow delegates who are sitting near us?

There! The music has begun. That should be Miss Helen Smith at the piano. Guess she's giving a musical introduction for the night's events. Now the crowd's beginning to get quiet. Ah! there they come. Left! Right! Left! Right! Women marchers of S.T.C. The freshman class (this is their first public athletic appearance), Guess we'll see some feats by the men of S.T.C. under the direction of Mr. Benn Maggs. This should be the famous wand drill I've heard so much about around the halls. Not bad!

Now they're going into tumbling and mat work. Look out for Lee Burton and "Inky" Davis. They're stars in their own right, Coach says. So are Sam Sherwell (He has a prominent part in "She Stoops To Conquer," you know), Walt McAllister and Harry McCann in apparatus maneuvers.

Say, what's happening now? Looks like—Yeah, that's right. Boy! do we have ring-side seats! Boxing, fencing, and wrestling going on at the same time. Say, Coach, a fine performance!

Now the girls are up again. Pyramid building. That swan effect over there's plenty good. Perfect timing!

And now who are those crazies on the floor? This is a circus. Pretty swell! I've got to find out who they are. This feature's always been a sort of surprise, you see. Well—that one over there might be a guy by the name of W. Duncan and again it may not—anyway—I'll tell you for sure on Friday night at the Gym Exhibition.

HI SENIOR!

The Student Grange at S.T.C. extends to you a hearty welcome to our Second Annual Student Conference. Don't leave without enjoying yourselves or learning something; yet, don't confine your educational activities to learning the names of all the nice looking girls and boys. Just be sure to learn the names of the girls in the Student Grange!

IRA T. TODD
I.T.

GREETINGS FROM THE HOME ASSOCIATION

The Home Association hopes that everyone of you will come to visit us April 9 and 10 and make yourselves at home while you're here. We warrant you won't find a cheerier household than here at S.T.C. What'd you bet? We'll settle that at the Student Conference.

Sincerely,
LUCILLE TESTERMAN

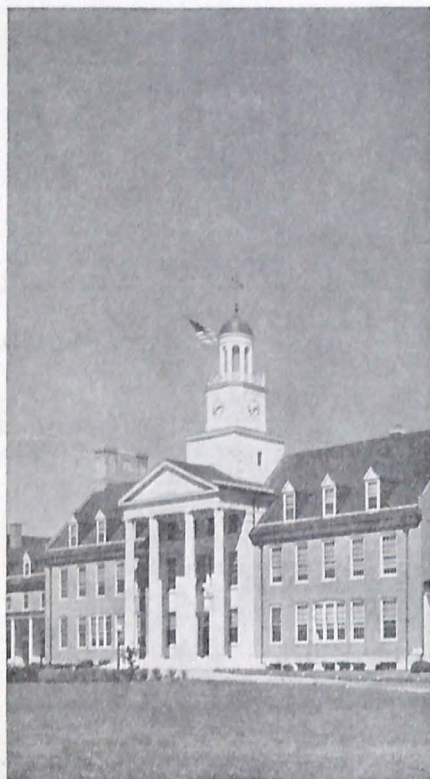

RED STAR LINES, INC.

CONVENIENT BUS SERVICE

WE OFFER
SAFETY
COURTESY
SERVICE

When you travel use the
Red Star Bus

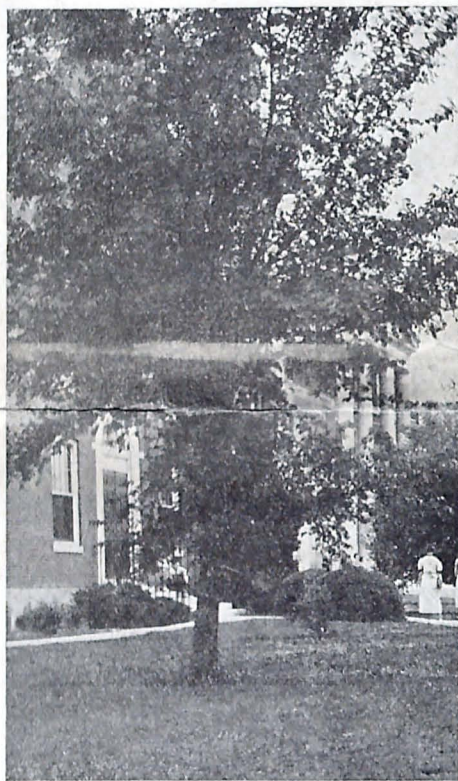

WHERE BEAUTY AND HOSPITALITY OF THE EASTERN SHORE ABOUND

ADMINISTRATION UNIT

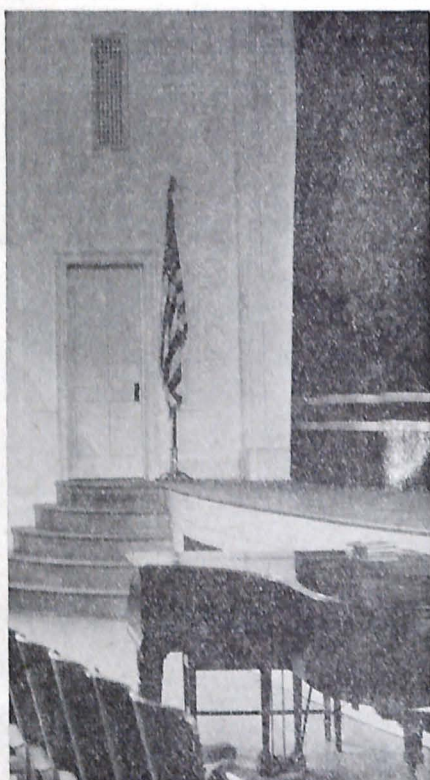

THE POST OFFICE

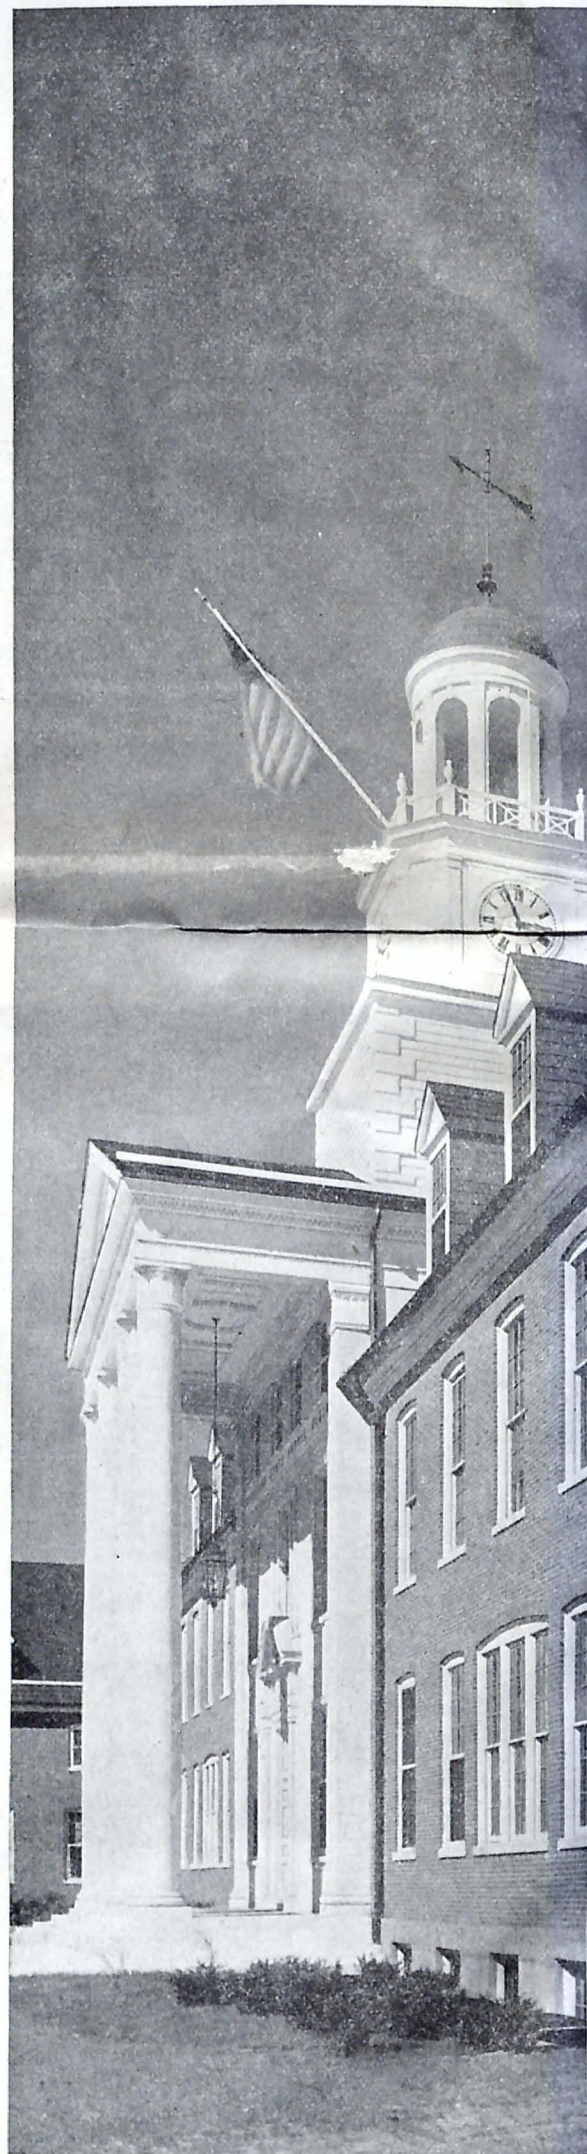

ENTRANCE — NORTH WING

What The Salisbury College Offers

1. An Orientation and Guidance Course.
2. A two year academic curriculum, the completion of which with an average grade of "C" or better enables one to enter, with full junior standing, any one of the following nine schools: Hood, Ithaca, Oberlin, St. Johns, State Teachers College at Frostburg, University of Maryland, Wake Forrest, Western Maryland, and William and Mary.
3. A four year teacher training curriculum leading to a B.S. degree
 - A. Enables a graduate to teach in the elementary schools of Maryland
 - B. Admits a graduate to graduate schools of education
4. The following costs are comparatively low:
 - A. Tuition and textbooks, $100 per year, payable $25 each quarter
 - B. Room, board and laundry, $216 per year, payable $54 each quarter
 - C. Student activity fee, $5 per year, payable upon entrance
 - D. Breakage fee, $5, payable but once, upon entrance, and refunded, minus charges made against it, when student leaves college.

CORNER AUDITORIUM

THE COLUMNS

Where The Second Annual Student Conference Will Be Held On April 9-10